

24HRS. $10. YOU CAN CHANGE OUR WORLD! ^[1]

By Robin Olson on March 10, 2016

We have until 11:59pm EST TODAY...

...to get the most people to make a single donation of just $10 to our rescue.

WHY?

Thanks to Fairfield County's Community Foundation, the non-profit organization who gets the MOST unique donations in 24 hours (so only donate ONCE PER PERSON) can WIN an Extra $20,000 for that rescue!

It takes 10 seconds + $10. Here's how:

1. Click this LINK ^[2] to reach our special DONATE PAGE

2. Donate $10 (or more is ok)

3. Forward this email to 5 friends. Encourage them to join you in giving to Kitten Associates, too.

Make your donation between the following hours for a bonus that could help us win up to $5000!

12 NOON EST to 1 PM EST

or

3 PM EST to 4 PM EST

and YES your donation is tax deductible, too!

Minnie was found in Bridgeport, nearly starved to death, along with her 5 days-old kittens. They were in a basement window well and a heavy rainstorm was coming soon. We shudder to think of what could have happened to Minnie and her family had we not said YES when we were asked to help. Today, Minnie basks in a home filled with love where her nickname is "Little Peanut." Her kittens are grown and in loving homes of their own. We've been honored to be part of over 400 cat's rescues since we opened in 2010 and we can't wait to rescue more with your help.

We're a 501c3, non-profit, 100% volunteer, home-foster-based rescue. We rely solely on donations to provide food, vet care and more for our foster cats and kittens. We also help our community with our FREE Cat Behavior Counseling service for any cat with behavior problems, as well as create fun programs for local families. One of our programs, Kitties for Kids, garnered us a Certificate of Special Recognition from Senator Richard Blumenthal, for our Outstanding Service to the families of Newtown after the tragedy here in 2012. If we won the first prize of $20,000 it would be a GAME-CHANGER for us. Among other things, it would allow us to finally update our worn out, run down main foster room so our foster cats could stay healthier and be happier until they find their forever home. Thank you for your consideration!
