

We're Having a White Christmas! [1]

By Robin Olson on December 4, 2011

Who wouldn't want to have a White Christmas? Now you can with our latest arrivals! These four sublime siblings are sweeter than sugar and white as snow. Three of them have a delicate brush stroke of grey on their head. They look so much alike we're not even sure which one is which!

What we DO know is these six month old sweethearts were orphaned when their mother was killed when they were only a few days old. Bottle fed by one of our fantastic foster mamas, these kittens survived and thrived in her loving care.

At just over 5 months old, Princess de Winter and her three brothers are ready to be adopted! If you'd like to learn more about them or fill out a Pre-Adoption application, just press the "Adopt" tab, above.
