Moo Kitty Lends a Helping Paw to K.A.! [1]

By Robin Olson on November 8, 2012

“Moo Kitty Finds a Home” [2], the Mom’s Choice Award winning book by Valerie Veltre, is the heartwarming tale of an adult cat who loses his home when his guardian passes away and is faced with the same real-life challenges that effect so many unwanted adult cats.

In honor of Adopt a Senior Pet Month, Moo Kitty and Kitten Associates have joined forces. The message of giving an adoptable adult cat a chance is not one to be taken lightly. Through the words of Ms. Veltre, penned for children, it’s clear that adult cats have a lot to offer and should be treasured, not thrown away. That’s why even though we don’t have a shelter and taking on adults means we may have them for over a YEAR, Kitten Associates is determined to help all cats, regardless of their age or health issues.

During the month of November, for every purchase of Moo Kitty (at a special price of 20% off!) [3], Kitten Associates will receive a $1.00 donation.

While that may not sound like a lot, $1.00 can buy cat food and in these trying times, every dollar matters.

With the Holidays upon us, we hope you’ll consider purchasing a copy or two of this beautifully illustrated story for the children in your family or for your local school’s library or donate a copy to a rescue group. Our senior cats deserve a loving home and Moo Kitty helps remind us of that.
